

COPY OF FORM 990

(TO BE USED, OR COPIED, FOR)

**PUBLIC INSPECTION ONLY****

---

NOTE

Under Internal Revenue Regulations, tax-exempt charitable organizations generally must provide requesters with COPIES of:

- Its approved exemption applications, all required attachments and any related correspondence with the IRS, and
- Its three most recent annual information returns (Form 990), including all schedules and attachments (but not the names and addresses of contributors).

In-person requests: A member of the public may request to inspect the documents at any principal office of the organization. The entity must provide the information requested that same day. However, if the request places an “unreasonable burden” on the organization, the staff must provide copies of the requested information no later than the next business day after the unusual circumstances cease to exist (limited to a maximum of five business days after the request).

Written requests: Written requests made by fax, mail, email, or overnight service, which include the requester’s address, must be honored within 30 days of receipt.

Website alternative: Instead of providing copies, an organization may make the documents available on either its own or another organization's website. If it uses this option, it has to: (1) provide an exact replica of the document as was filed with the IRS; (2) advise requesters how to access the forms on the web; (3) the site should charge no access fee and require no special software or hardware to download. Organizations that post this information on the Internet still must honor in-person requests to view the applicable documents.

Permissible charges: Tax-exempt organizations may charge a reasonable copying fee, up to $1 for the first page and 15 cents for each additional page, plus actual postage costs.

Penalties: An organization that fails to comply with the new disclosure requirements may be subject to the following penalties:

- Annual Information Return – Form 990 - $20 per day for as long as the failure continues, up to a maximum of $10,000 for each failure to provide an annual return.
- Exemption Application - $20 per day with no maximum.
- An organization that willfully fails to comply with these public inspection rules can be subject to an additional $5,000 penalty.

Private foundation exempt: The new disclosure rules don't yet apply to private foundations. They must still make a copy of their annual return available for public inspection at their principal office for a period of 180 days after publishing a notice of availability.

Donor Information: Please note that donor information is not open to public inspection and has been excluded from this copy.

Part V Supplemental Information

Provide the information required by Part I, line 2 (monitoring of funds); Part I, line 3, column (f) (accounting method; amounts of investments vs. expenditures per region); Part II, line 1 (accounting method); Part III (accounting method); and Part III, column (c) (estimated number of recipients), as applicable. Also complete this part to provide any additional information. See instructions.

Part I, Line 2:

Grant reports are provided by recipients on a monthly basis, containing details on how funds were used as well as accomplishments achieved.

Grants to individuals are issued after grantees have submitted written agreement and a report detailing the intended use of the grant funds and expected accomplishments. Grants to individuals are then approved by the Board and the organization confirms the grant usage with a follow-up site visit after the project has been completed.

Part I, line 3:

The organization tracks foreign grant expenditures in accordance with the accrual basis of accounting, using expense reports, grant feedback, and other appropriate documentation.

Form 990, Part III, Line 4a, Program Service Accomplishments:

KRF built 483 homes for the extreme poor in Nicaragua. Our goal is to bring these families out of their destitute conditions through the construction of community centers and double-unit homes with sanitation, access to potable water, and sustainable chicken farms.

Each unit is equipped with two bedrooms, a living room, a personal sanitation unit, a stove, and a connection for potable water. The unit costs $5,200 to build.

KRF continued support to Home of Hope in India to provide a facility providing free room and board, three meals a day, clean water, clothing, and education to 350 orphan boys in India. All these boys were homeless due to their parents being martyred for their beliefs.

KRF continued its support to The King's Children's Home in Belize, providing day to day needs for over 60 children.

KRF worked with Frontier Harvest Ministries delivering safe water filtration systems and chlorine generators to Africa.

KRF continued its support to help rescue children enslaved in the sex trade industry aiding in the process of over 1,500 children.

KRF is also working with a levite in Israel who finds people in the most desperate of situations and provides for their needs to help them
